The Experience

Your experience starts with an expert on-ground briefing about flying techniques and safety. Then you begin your flight with a fully qualified pilot. At the pilot's discretion you can take the controls and pilot the aircraft under expert supervision during your flight. Discover why to pilot a light aircraft can be such a satisfactory experience.

The "baptism of Flight", an aerial ride accompanied by an instructor, does not require special physical training nor any previous knowledge in aeronautics or weather. Some centres require you produce name and address/photo id on the day for security reasons.
