The Experience

Enjoy a skippered late afternoon or early evening canal barge cruise for 2 people from Sallins to McCreavy's Lock through the county Kildare countryside.

As you cruise down the river you can sit out on the open deck to enjoy stunning views and learn all about the life and history of the Grand Canal. You will also see some of the most fascinating feats of 18th century canal engineering. If you prefer, there is also seating inside.

During your cruise, why not make the most of the on-board bar that serves local craft beers and wines.

Vital Information

Small children must wear life jackets. Unfortunately the barge is not wheelchair accessible. Only those aged 18 and over will be served alcoholic beverages.
